IN THE CYCLING WORLD.

WHEELMEN ON THE AMATEUR ATHLETIC UNION TROUBLE.

AN OPINION FROM WILL R. PITMAN-THE EVOLU-TION OF THE BICYCLE ILLUSTRATED-EAST-

ERN TRACK-OWNERS TO MEET. The differences between the League of American Wheelmen and the Amateur Athletic Union began about a year ago, and there appear to be some people who think that something really serious will happen. The A. A. U. has retired from the partial alliance which has existed between it and the L. A. W. Another alliance may be arranged. the L. A. W. Another alifance may be arranged. W. S. Buil, the secretary-treasurer of the New-York State Division of the L. A. W., when seen yesterday, said that he did not think that there would be any serious differences between the two organizations. He recalled the meeting at the Astor House a year ago, and said that he had supposed that the suggestions made at that meeting about an alliance had been carried out.

Will R. Pitman, the well-known cyclist and mem ber of the New-York State Racing Board of the League of American Wheelmen, when seen yesteraid in reference to any possible war between the L. A. W. and the Amateur Athletic Union and other organizations: "I, as well as other L. A. W. officials in this district, have watched this matter closely since last spring. I think that it would be for the best interests of all athletic organizations to have some sort of offensive and defensive alli-If the other organizations are willing to be able, without doubt the L. A. W. would be willing to make an alliance that will be productive of good to all concerned, and will prevent many unauthorized criticisms, which have led up to the present differences and exist largely in the imagination. I will suggest the opinion that if an alliance is formed, other than that now in vogue, the L. A. W. would be willing to back up the different organizations forming the aliliance in cases of suspension and unfair work in athletics of any description, or in cases of professionalism. I don't think, however, that the League should withhold sanctions simply because others do, and vice versa. It strikes me that it would have been better taste for the organizations to have waited until after the L. A. W. had decided to admit professionals to membership. With a proper alliance all organizations could live in peace and good-will. The L. A. W. will not bend the knee to any organization, as it knows its strength and power, but neither does it knows its strength and power, but neither does to what." illing to make an alliance that will be productive that will form a central feature at the coming Na-tional Cycle Show in the Grand Central Palace, to held from February 6 to 13 in this city. The exhibit will include a complete collection, lent by one of the oldest manufacturing houses, of chains, framed of the oldest manufacturing houses, of chains, framed designs, pedals, sprockets, handle-bars, saddles, etc., illustrating the evolutions through which the old bone-shaker has passed to the present safety bicycle, with its graceful, delicate lines and beautiful infish. Another unique display will show the changes in cyclometers in the last lifteen years. Other interesting and instructive features are contemplated by President Coleman, who is directing all arrangements for the annual exhibition, under the auspices of the National Cycle Board of Trade.

A meeting of the National Cycle Racing Associa n, composed of the track-owners in the East, will held at the Everett House, in this city, on Saturday night. January 16. The track-owners will try to arrange a circuit and avoid conflict, and remedy racing abuses as far as possible. The idea originated with E. C. Hodges, of Boston.

The proposed new bicycle track near Parkville, Long Island, in which some well-known horsemen are interested, has been abandoned. Captain George Needham, of the Kings County Wheelmen, was in-terested in the venture. It was proposed at one time to expend $5,000 on such a track and grounds.

The Riverside Wheelmen have passed over their time of strife, and since the installation of new offi-cers everything is moving smoothly.

The Columbia College and the Intercollegiate Athletic Association bicycle meetings at the Manhattan Beach track will be held on May 22, or 31, or June 5.

Cyclists desiring to join the League of American Waselinen may obtain full printed information and membership blanks by sending names and ad-dresses to the Cycling Editor, Tribune.

TO REPORT FOOTBALL RULES.

WESTERN UNIVERSITY PRESIDENTS TAKE ACTION

Madison, Wis., Jan. 8.-The meeting of the Western university presidents, which has been in ses-sion here for the last two days, ended last night. Before adjourning they adopted the following reso

Whereas, The representatives of the State universities here assembled are of opinion that intercollegiate athleties in general and football in particular should be subjected to more careful and constant supervision; therefore, be it.

Resolved, That a committee consisting of President C K Adams of the University of Wisconsin, President A. S. Draper, of Illinois, and President F. H. Snow, of Kansas, be appointed to report such rules as they deem wise, to be recommended for the consideration of the several institutions with which they are connected.

The members of the body expressed the as favoring some modification, but were opposed to any radical action.

GRAVESEND YACHT CLUB NOMINATIONS.

The Committee on Nominations of the Gravesend Bay Yacht Club have named the following as candis for the officers of the club for the year: Commodore, Charles W. Morgan; vice-commodore, Ed-mund J. Bates; rear-commodore, Herman Heidelberger; measurer, Richard W. Rummell; president, berger; measurer, Richard W. Rummell; president, Cornelius Furgueson; vice-president, Thomas Cleary; treasurer, Lawrence F. Wilson, financial secretary, Charles W. Kennedy; recording secretary, James W. Wakelee; trustees, James E. Bale, Aloysius J. Barnett, Frank A. Bolles, Walter L. Byrn, Albert A. Ehrlich, Thomas W. Harris, William E. Johnson, Edward Lohman, Henry W. Pfalzgraf, Constantine Schubert, Robert H. Sherwood and Robert J. Webb.

GOOD SKATING EXPECTED TO-DAY.

The prospects are good for skating in the public barks in both cities to-day, providing the park officlais do not become too solicitous for the welfare of the public, and decide to postpone the opening of the skating season and the hoisting of the red ball for still another day. The ice on the lakes at Var for still another day. The ice on the lakes at Van Cortlandt Park was in good condition for the sport last night, and there should be skating there today, unless a thaw sets in this morning.

At the Arsenal in Central Park last night it was announced that the chances for skating there today were excellent, and that the lakes in the Park would in all probability be thrown open to skaters this morning.

The small lakes in Prospect Park, Brooklyn, may also be ready for the skaters to-day. The ice on the larger lake may not be ready for the merry throng of pleasure-seekers for several days.

NEW RULES FOR COLLEGE ATRLETICS.

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the Inlegiate Athletic Association was held last evening at the Fifth Avenue Hotel for the purpose of making a number of changes in the amendments which are to be presented at the annual meeting of he association, to be held on Saturday, February 27. One of the principal changes in the amendment ll be in regard to the bicycle contests. Heretofore the association has not been allowed to pay the exes of the men who have competed for them for fear of breaking one of the rules of the L. A. W. This, members of the Executive Committee say, they do not consider fair, and that in justice to the men they should be treated the same as the track men, who receive their expenses.

Murdock Kendrick, of Pennsylvania University, one of the Executive Committee, said last evening that he had already talked the matter over with Chairman Gideon, of the Racing Board of the L. A. W., and there was no doubt that the committee would carry its point. If so, the expenses of all the men who compete for them at the meets will be paid in the future.

The members of the Executive Committee of the Intercollegiate Association are Gustave Kirby, Committee, president; Murdock Kendrick, University of Pennsylvania; A. H. Bullock, Harvard; Oliver Sharvis, Cornell University; Howard Bill, New-York University, and C. C. M Murray.

ALLEY TO PLAY WITH THE DETROITS. Paulding, Ohio, Jan. 8 .- "Bob" Allen, once famous as the shortstop and captain of the Philadelphia National League Club, has signed a contract to manage and play shortstop for the Detroit Western League Club this season.

TO FIGHT IN THE UNITED STATES. Chicago, Jan. 8.-"Patsey" Carroll and Frank Kennedy last night received a telegram from "Dan" Stuart announcing that the fight between Fitzsimmons and Corbett will take place in the United States. According to the message, the bat-the-ground selected is considered so much of a sure-thing that Carroll and Kennedy at once started plans to run a special train to the scene of action. The spot chosen will be known one month before the fight takes place.

AMERICAN YACHT CLUB TICKET.

The following ticket has been nominated by the Board of Trustees for election at the annual meeting of the American Yacht Club to be held January 19: For commodore, Charles A. Gould, steam yacht Neaira; for vice-commodore, William R.

TALK ABOUT TURF AFFAIRS.

TIONS LOOSE IN TAMMANY-THE RI-VAL OF THE OLD GUARD BALL.

The Maniture was in a complaining mood yet tending the Old Guard Ball at the Metropolitan Opera House, but was as chatty as ever and talked George Work or E. Berry Wall to parade around the wineroom at a ball. To be sure, they added to the lustre of the occasion last night, and their wellfitting clothes were in marked contrast to the ill-fitting uniforms of many of the soldier boys who were present. Of course, it is essential for Berry Wall to stand well with the Old Guard, because he is in politics now, and the Old Guard drinks and never refuses. So many of the military men who may be possible that George Work attended the ball to get some points about pigeon shooting. But, say, you should have seen Hamilton Cary! He was right in it, and won all the honors in the supper-

"Major Sloan has decided to decide the ! being the greatest man in the Old Guard, and says that he intends to resign his commission as commander, because military etiquette demands that fore the officers of the Guard have heard them. The Major told a story in his best vein, and when an officer of the Philadelphia City Troop said that he heard it at a Clover Club dinner he chagrined at being called down by a voice from the tombs that he decided that it was time for him to retire from the ranks.

"Did you see General Ruger? The Bowery may have the Depew peach; Albany may have the Tillinghast cucumber, but you can bet your money and go as far as you like on it, Governor's Islan has the apricot of anything in soldier clothes we But listen; why did so many young me the Old Guard Ball to attend L'Amitle at the Lexington Avenue Opera House? On! they danced the lancers differently up there. I see that there are other balls on the East Side that are warmer than the Old Guard's. Captain Chapman did not go, for I saw him watching the boxes from the balcony.

"I heard about some of the goings-on at L'Amitie. Billie Parry took the leader's place, and conducted a waltz so successfully that he received several Keenan to England? I believe that somebody did something to Mr. Belmont when he was in England last summer, and that he is sending Keenan over there to get even. The Englishmen will bet on Keenan on his looks in his first race, on a tip from the stable in his second, and on the good showing he made by finishing fourth in that race they will plunge on him for his third race, and go broke. The two-year-olds are all right, but the Britons will never forgive him for sending Keenan over there. I am surprised that the Metropolitan Turf Club did not protest against it. The bettors should petition the Jockey Club to give a vote of thanks to Mr. Belmont, who has pointed out the path that the owners of counterfeits like Keenan should take path that the owners of counterfeits like Keenan should take.

What a lot of kicking is going on among the politicians of Tammany Hall. One of the leaders who came in here full of quotations and other things that Tammany leaders delight in objects to Mr. Croker's anger because Purroy is an ingrate, who does not know when he has a good thing. Just think of it! Purroy is reported to have said that Bourke Cockran broke out of Tammany Hall and broke into society. Can it be possible that Purroy has hopes, and intends to do likewise, and that he is dailying with Platt for that purpose? Croker had better keep his eye on Tom Grady and 'Tim' Suilivan if that is the case, or if the social bacilli strikes Tammany.

How is Foxhall Keene going to act as a steward of the National Steeplechase Association if he intends to remain in England all summer? Foxy is not a Croker, and Sammy Howland may be able to manage the association's affairs alone.

"Oscar Hammerstein is in a state of nervous excitement ever since he heard that Andy Freedman was appointed receiver of his affairs. Oscar could stand for almost anything, but Andy was too much for him."

At a meeting of the stewards of the Jockey Club sterday afternoon a license was granted to the Washington Jockey Club to hold a spring and autumn race meeting under the racing rules of the Jockey Club. The complaint of Robert Bradley against Jockey Thomas Powers for leaving his employ without a discharge was referred to a comtee for investigation. The following racing offi-is were appointed for the season of 1807: Starter, als were appointed for the season of 189; Starter,
H. Pettingill; judges, R. W. Simmons and Clartice McDowell; handicapper, W. S. Vosburgh, erk of the scales, C. J. Fitzgerald; timer, W. H.
arretto; official stewards for licensed courses, W.
Vosburgh and Clarence McDowell.

DANIEL DEFOE'S NIECE.

From The Baltimore Sun.

The supposed destruction of Juan Fernandez Island, famous as the home of Alexander Selkirk, whose fate suggested Robinson Crusee, brings to mind the fact that the niece of Daniel Defee lived at Calvert, Ceeil County, where she married and died. The name of Defee's niece was Elizabeth Maxwell. She was eighteen years of age when she left her uncle's home in London. The cause for her departure is said to have been on account of the attentions of a young man of whom her mother and uncle disapproved. The young lady is said to have been a determined girl, and, boarding a vessel, she agreed to be sold for a term of years to pay her passage to the New World. She reached Philadelphia in the autumn of 1718 and was sold with several others who had been brought over on the vessel. Her purchaser was Andrew Job, of Brick Meeting-House, now Calvert, Md.

In 1725 Miss Elizabeth was married in the old meeting-house to Thomas Job, son of the old Quaker who bought ber. After the wedding she wrote her uncle and informed him of her whereabouts and circumstances. Defoe replied that her mother was dead, but some property had been willed to her. The author expressed great desire that his niece take good care of the effects that had been left her, as they had descended to the family from their Flemish ancestors, who sought refuge under Queen Elizabeth from the tyranny of Philip of Spain.

Several pieces of the furniture are still in the keeping of descendants in Cecil County, among them two chairs owned by Hannah Griffith, both coming from Defee's study. One is in its original condition. It is a heavy chair, with eaken seat and carved legs and back. Daniel Defoe Job, one of fowers, and retaining her activity of mind and loody until the end of her life, in 1782 aged eighty-two years.

body until the end of her hie, in 192 age class, two years.

Another grandson, Andrew Job, the hermit of Nottingham Forest, died in the ninety-second year of his age. The sole descendant bearing the Joh name is Haines Job, who resides near Calvert.
